Dr. Eugen Merzbacher,
Karlstrasse, 10,
München, Germany

Dear Sir:

We beg to acknowledge the receipt of the Napoleonic material sent by you on October 22d. There was a delay in receiving these pieces as they were held up in the postoffice.

We found that we already had Nos. 1804 and 1794, as well as No. 2 which you sent over on approval. These we are returning herewith. We have directed our bank to send you a draft for the pieces we are keeping, amounting to M. 595.50.

We note in your letter of November 4th that you offer us several other medals. If you still have these in stock, you might send us Nos. 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, and 9. We already have No. 5.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Munchen, Germany.

Dear Sirs,

I have your letter of November 9th, and the package of medals by Joseph Bernhart has also arrived, though as the valuation is over $100.00 it is not yet through the customs. I have referred the matter with the letter from Prof. J. B. Bauer, to the Curator of the American Numismatic Society, Mr. Howland Wood: he will give it attention. The range of my own collecting is quite limited. There was nothing in your catalogue that I wanted to buy. With sincere appreciation of your courtesy, believe me,

Very truly yours,

Dr. Eugene Merzbacher, Nachtfolger,
Karlstrasse, 10,
Munich, Germany

Dear Sir:

Mr. William Chauncy Langdon, 195 Broadway, of this city, has turned over to us your letter notifying him of a shipment of nine stone models and fourteen silver and one brass medal made by the sculptor Bernhard. This package is held in our Customs and can not be delivered unless a bond is deposited as its value is over $100 and no consular invoice came with it. Mr. Langdon is in no position to clear this package, nor does he care to go to the expense involved in depositing bond, and has consequently turned this matter over to us.

Kindly go to the American Consul and have a consular invoice made out for this package in the name of the American Numismatic Society and send it to us as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

Curator
